According to Just Say Something's latest Blog written by Parent Consultant, Karent Hyatt, "Now, we live in a world where we avoid crowds (or at least most of us do), wash our hands more than we EVER have before, put on our "mask armor" before we head out the door, and we head for the nearest exit, if we hear anyone sneeze or cough..." ## Just Say Something Goes Bi-lingual!

Please join Just Say Something in welcoming our new Spanish-speaking Staff, Mally Mitchell and Alely Ariza! Both Mally and Alely started out as volunteers with our Strengthening Families Program (SFP) for Spanish-speaking parents! Mally is now SFP Program Coordinator and will be providing Spanish Language versions of our Parenting Wisely and Back In Control Parenting Enrichment Courses. Alely recently signed on as Book Keeper and Administrative Assistant and remains involved in our Strengthening Families Program (SFP) for Spanish-speaking parents.

We are so grateful to these ladies for joining our staff and helping Just Say Something reach further into the Greenville Community with much needed resources!
