

Youth Impact Sports

JUNE-JULY 2022

Written by Stacey Ashmore

This year, most North Franklin elementary and middle schoolers attended Summer School Camp. They didn't attend because of bad grades but because the United Way "On Track" Grant funds summer camp for the Title 1 Schools they attend. And due to hot weather conditions this summer, their parents limited their participation in Youth Impact Sports programs. But we did have an opportunity to walk the community trail and talk about school behavior.

We also have two dates to see a movie at the Camelot Theater. And we took fourteen kids to an Atlanta Falcons vs. Jacksonville Jaguars football game on Saturday, August 27th. Donations were welcome in support of youth food purchases. Transportation was provided.

YIS Summer Outings

We also had a week-long, summer camp at CEE Boxing. During that time, Jocelyn, JSS Youth Intern, had discussions with the youth about life skills, gangs, vaping nicotine and other substance use.

I would like to thank NAI Earle Furman for giving CEE Boxing an opportunity to see two movies at the Camelot Theater. It was shocking to hear several kids say that was their first time going to a movie theater. They also received a large popcorn and a 16oz drink, thanks to NAI Earle Furman.

Centre Stage and the Sheriff's Department presented a "mock active shooting" on stage with the help of CEE youth to teach them how to exit a building and seek shelter. They really enjoyed participating in the activity.

We look forward to seeing everyone (Reedy Property, NAI Earle Furman, JSS and CEE Boxing) at the book-bag giveaway at The Cleveland Street YMCA!
